
PETITION.

To the Honourable the Speaker and Members of the Legislature in Parliament assembled at Victoria, British Columbia:

NANAIMO, B. C., February 6th, 1899.

We, the undersigned, licensed victuallers of Nanaimo and vicinity, humbly petition and pray that you will, during the present session of the Legislative Assembly, so amend the law governing retail liquor licences:—

1. That the party actually vending under licence shall be the holder or licensee.
2. That a landlord or owner of premises used as a saloon or hotel shall not be the holder of the licence unless actually vending under said licence and being in possession of premises licensed.
