8 Mr. Barnes asked the Hon. the Minister of Finance the following questions:

Upon his death in mid-1975, a B.C. logger of some 50 years tenure left in his will the sum of $141,697.65 to the Province of British Columbia to be used in helping others. The donor was Dan Matijevech who died at the age of 75. As a so-called "urgent" move, according to OIC 2859 of November 9, 1978, the said sum was turned over to the B.C. Forest Foundation, excluding interest accrued, for the establishment of a B.C. Forest Hall of Fame:

1. Will the Minister assure the House the donation is being spent according to the donor's wishes?
2. As there is presently no such society, or place as the B.C. Forest Hall of Fame, will the Minister explain the "urgency" for turning over the $141,697.65 to the B.C. Forest Foundation?

The Hon. H. A. Curtis replied as follows:

"1. Mr. Matijevich's bequest to the Government of the Province of British Columbia was for the Government's own use with the expression that he hoped his gift may help other people in British Columbia.

"For the information of the House, the following constitutes the Board of Directors of the B.C. Forest Foundation who will exercise their judgment in the expenditure of this fund so generously bequeathed to the people of British Columbia:

Board of Directors—

- Kenneth M. Bagshaw, Barrister and Solicitor, Ladner Downs.
- W. G. Burch, Vice-President, British Columbia Forest Products.
- D. G. Evans, Corporation Communications Manager, British Columbia Forest Products.
- Victor Heath, British Columbia Institute of Technology.
- Mrs. Lucille M. Johnstone, Vice-President, Administration, Riv-Tow Straits Ltd.
- D. A. S. Lanskaill, President, Council of Forest Industries of British Columbia.
- J. D. Little, Vice-President, Northwood Pulp and Timber Co. Ltd.
- J. D. Maitland, Chairman, Hastings West Investment Ltd.
- Walter Maughan, Secretary, Hastings West Investment Ltd.
- F. H. Moonen, Vice-President, Government Affairs, MacMillan Bloedel Ltd.
- W. D. Moore, President, W. D. Moore Logging Company.
- J. J. Munro, President, I.W.A. Regional Council No. 1, International Woodworkers of America.
- Peter Pearse, Ph.D., Faculty of Economics, University of British Columbia.
- Landis Keehn Smith, Ministerial Assistant, Communications, to the Minister of Forests.
- Ben Thompson, President, Local 1-71, International Woodworkers of America.
- W. M. Young, Chief Executive Officer, Finning Tractor and Equipment Co. Ltd.
- Randolph B. Zien, Barrister and Solicitor, Ladner Downs.

"2. The urgency of paying Mr. Matijevich's bequest to the B.C. Forest Foundation was to allow the investment of these funds at interest once the appropriate application of the funds had been established. The Government had no statutory authority to make payment of interest to the credit of the bequest while it was held in the consolidated revenue fund. The value of the deposit at March 17, 1980, was reported to be $161,670.40."

And then the House adjourned at 5.58 p.m.

On the motion of Mr. Hyndman, the debate was adjourned to the next sitting of the House.

Resolved, That the House, at its rising, do stand adjourned until 2 o'clock p.m. on Monday next.

Mr. Speaker made the following statement:

Honourable Members:

Standing Order 42 (3) requires that the Speaker inform the House that the reply of the mover of the original motion closes the debate. The purpose of the Standing Order is to alert members who have yet to speak, and a member thus alerted may stand immediately and declare that he wishes to continue in debate.

Today, following the custom of the House, I recognized the Minister of Finance as the only member standing, and inquired if the Minister was closing debate. At that point another member sought the attention of the Chair to continue the debate and was recognized. The Minister quite correctly yielded the floor.

The Speaker will recognize all members who wish to take their place in debate. This House does not recognize an official speakers' list. It is incumbent upon members to be prepared to speak at the appropriate time.

H. W. SCHROEDER, Speaker

And then the House adjourned at 12.53 p.m.

Monday, March 24, 1980

TWO O'CLOCK P.M.

Prayers by the Rev. Bert Forsythe.

The Hon. R. H. McClelland (Minister of Energy, Mines and Petroleum Resources) presented the Annual Report of the Ministry of Energy, Mines and Petroleum Resources, 1978.

Order called for "Oral Questions by Members."

Mr. Speaker made the following statement:

Honourable Members:

You will recall on Friday last that an Honourable Member responding I believe, to the general sense of the House, withdrew certain words he had uttered in the course of debate.

When it appeared that another Honourable Member, upon taking his place in the debate, was about to repeat those words, objection was taken. At that time, I expressed the opinion that the effect of a withdrawal of words spoken, was, so to speak, an expurging of those words from the record in the House, but not of course from the official record of the debate as reported by Hansard. The question then arose as to what extent, if any, the objectionable words, without being repeated, could by inference be alluded to in the course of subsequent debate.

As the dignity of the House has been preserved by a withdrawal of the objectionable words, which as I have said may not be repeated, it is my view that the general freedom to pursue a proper area of debate should not be unduly limited simply because in that area of debate unparliamentary words had previously been used. I do not feel it wise, however, for the Chair to endeavour to make a ruling to be construed as applicable in all future exchanges of a like nature. The particular circumstances must always govern consistent with order in the House and its preservation of the general freedom of debate.

H. W. SCHROEDER, Speaker

Pursuant to Order, the House resumed the adjourned debate on the motion "That Mr. Speaker do now leave the Chair" for the House to go into Committee of Supply.

The debate continued.

Motion agreed to on the following division:
