To the Hon. the Speaker and Members of the Legislative Assembly of the Province of British Columbia, in Parliament assembled :

The humble petition of the Reeve and Council of the Municipality of Coquitlam, respectfully sheweth :—

That John Pike and others have given notice of an intention to apply to your Honourable House for the privilege of taking water from, among others, the Coquitlam River, for the purpose of generating electricity ; and we consider that such privilege, if granted, would be detrimental to the interests of our Municipality, and respectfully pray that no such privileges, as regards the Coquitlam River, be granted.

And, as in duty bound, your petitioners will ever pray, etc.

R. B. KELLY,
Reeve.
