To the Speaker and Honourable Members of the Legislative Assembly of the Province of British Columbia, in Session now assembled:

The petition of the undersigned humbly sheweth:—

That at last session of Sumas Lodge of Independent Order of Good Templars the Chief Officer and Secretary were requested to call the attention of Your Legislative Body to the provision in the “Municipal Act” permitting the using of Club Licenses within rural Municipalities is detrimental to the best interests of society, and said licenses, for legitimate business, are only intended for cities.

And would request Your Honourable House to amend said Act as to said provision.

And your petitioners, as in duty bound, will ever pray.

(MRS.) L. L. CHADSEY, Chief Templar,
A. D. CLARKE, Secretary.
