His Honour the Lieutenant Governor was pleased to deliver the following gracious Speech:

Mr. Speaker and Members of the Legislative Assembly:

In closing the Fourth Session of the Thirty-fourth Parliament, I wish to commend the effort and dedication displayed by all Members during this past Session.

This Session has seen the passage of over 85 pieces of legislation, many of great significance to the people of British Columbia.

You adopted important measures to ensure the economic stability of British Columbia by protecting jobs and avoiding an undue tax burden on our citizens. In addition, the Compensation Fairness Act balances fair compensation in the public sector with the taxpayer's ability to pay.

You are to be congratulated on the passage of the Constitutional Amendment Approval Act which will assist us in addressing the major constitutional challenges facing our nation.

By your adoption of the Referendum Act you have ensured that all British Columbians will have the opportunity to express their views on constitutional reform and other major government initiatives.

To provide financial security for our people upon retirement, you introduced two important pieces of legislation; the British Columbia Retirement Savings Plan Act and the Pension Benefits Standards Act.

In recognition of the increasing needs of our people in Northern British Columbia for access to post-secondary education, you passed the University of Northern British Columbia Act.

By your adoption of the Carmanah Pacific Park Act, you created a 3600-hectare park in the Carmanah Valley. This legislation will ensure the protection of the largest stand of old growth Sitka spruce on our western coast.

A framework to provide standards of conduct for Members of this Legislature was approved by your passage of the Members' Conflict of Interest Act.

With the passage of the First Peoples' Heritage, Language and Culture Act, you have pledged to support the Native peoples of this Province in their efforts to preserve their language and culture.

Honourable Members, as this Fourth Session of the Thirty-fourth Parliament comes to a close, I wish to express my appreciation for your commitment on behalf of all British Columbians.

I now relieve you of your legislative duties.

His Honour the Lieutenant Governor was then pleased to retire.

The Hon. H. Dirks (Provincial Secretary) then said:

Mr. Speaker and Members of the Legislative Assembly:

It is His Honour the Lieutenant Governor's will and pleasure that the Legislative Assembly be prorogued until it shall please the Lieutenant Governor to summon the same for dispatch of business and this Provincial Legislative Assembly is hereby prorogued accordingly.

And then the House prorogued at 2.17 p.m.

C. STEPHEN ROGERS, Speaker
