
PETITION.

To the Honourable the Speaker and Members of the Legislative Assembly of the Province of British Columbia in Parliament assembled.

The petition of the undersigned, Daniel C. Corbin, of the City of New York, in the State of New York, banker; Arthur A. Newbery, of Spokane Falls, in the State of Washington, gentleman; Albert Allen, of Spokane Falls, aforesaid, attorney-at-law; all in the United States of America; Thomas Brigham Hall, of the City of Victoria, in the Province of British Columbia, merchant; Joshua Davies, of the said city, auctioneer; and Charles Wilson, of the said city, barrister-at-law, humbly sheweth:—

That your petitioners are desirous of being incorporated under the corporate name of “The Nelson and Kootenay Lake Railway Company,” for the purpose of building, equipping, operating, and maintaining a railway in the Province of British Columbia, from the town of Nelson, on the west arm of Kootenay Lake, to the south end of the said Kootenay Lake, or from a point on the line of their proposed railway to the south end of Kootenay Lake, in the said Province, together with all the powers incidental thereto, and together with power to maintain and carry on a general express business in connection with the said railway.

Wherefore, your petitioners humbly pray that your Honourable House may be pleased to pass an Act for the purposes above mentioned.

And, as in duty bound, your petitioners will ever pray, &c., &c.

Dated this 28th day of January, A.D. 1890.

A. A. NEWBERY,
ALBERT ALLEN,
T. B. HALL,
