"Some calls may appear in more than one column. For example: an anonymous call concerning possible child abuse which was dealt with by initial telephone counselling and then referred to a ministry office for follow-up would appear as an anonymous call, a counselling call, and a call concerning child abuse.

"The figures in this table differ in some cases from previously released figures. The recording and reporting systems have undergone extensive revision and some identified problems are still to be resolved. The figures in this table have been generated by computer analysis of all previous recording systems; however, systems difficulties can and do result in under-reporting in all categories.

"The variance in calls in the 'crank' column results from procedural changes in the recording system. Up to June 1980, there was no computer reporting category for crank calls or hang-ups. The figures obtained prior to June 1980 came from a manual check on written records where such observations were made."

And then the House adjourned at 5.45 p.m.

Order called for "Oral Questions by Members."

Mr. Passarell sought leave to move adjournment of the House, pursuant to Standing Order 35, for a definite matter of urgent public importance, namely, the proposed dumping of mine tailings into Alice Arm.

The Hon. H. W. Schroeder (Speaker) stated that an opportunity to debate the matter raised was already at hand during debate on the motion "That Mr. Speaker do now leave the Chair" for the House to go into Committee of Supply and the matter did not qualify for debate pursuant to Standing Order 35.

Pursuant to Order, the House resumed the adjourned debate on the amendment to the motion "That Mr. Speaker do now leave the Chair" for the House to go into Committee of Supply.

Mr. Cocke sought to move a subamendment.

On a point of order being raised, Mr. Speaker declared a recess.

Mr. Speaker ruled that a subamendment may not be moved to an amendment to the motion for Mr. Speaker to leave the Chair for the House to go into Committee of Supply without notice, as the subamendment seeking to amend the amendment must be subject to the same restrictions applicable to the amendment itself.

Mr. Speaker stated that those restrictions included the requirement for notice and quoted the 16th Edition of Sir Erskine May, at page 728, and the Journals of the House, 1918, April 11th, at page 148.

The Speaker's ruling was challenged.

During the debate on a point of order being raised, Mr. Speaker ruled that, while reading of speeches is not appropriate during debate, certain exceptions to the rule exist and quoted the 5th Edition of Beauchesne at page 102.

Mr. Speaker further stated that in raising a point of order any accusation of preferential treatment by the Chair is entirely out of order.
