

PETITION.

To the Honourable the Legislative Assembly of the Province of British Columbia, in Parliament assembled:

The petition of David Oppenheimer, Harry Abbott and John M. Browning humbly sheweth :—

That your petitioners believe it to be desirable that the Ashcroft and Cariboo Railway Act of 1890 should be amended so as to enable the Company, among other things, to reduce its capital stock and make By-laws for the re-organization and working of the Company, and other amendments :

Your petitioners therefore pray that your honourable body will be pleased during the present Session to pass an Act to authorize them to amend the said Act.

And your petitioners, as in duty bound, will ever pray.

Dated this 29th day of January, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-one.

D. OPPENHEIMER.

H. ABBOTT.

J. M. BROWNING.

PETITION.

To the Honourable the Legislative Assembly of the Province of British Columbia, in Parliament assembled:

The petition of Richard Plunkett Cooke, George de Wolf, and Walter E. Graveley, humbly sheweth:—

That your petitioners believe it to be desirable that a line of Railway should be constructed and operated, commencing at some point on the Mission Branch of the Canadian Pacific Railway, thence running in an easterly direction and terminating at some point in the Municipality of Chilliwack.

Your petitioners therefore pray that your honourable body will be pleased during the present session to authorize the construction and operation of the said line of Railway by your petitioners as a Company to be known as “The Chilliwack Railway Company.”

And your petitioners, as in duty bound, will ever pray.

Dated this 2nd day of February, A.D. 1891.

R. P. COOKE.

GEO. DE WOLF.

WALTER J. GRAVELEY.
