29 Mr. Howard asked the Hon. the Minister of Industry and Small Business Development the following questions:

1. Did the Ministry of Industry and Small Business Development make a grant to the Canada West Foundation in the fiscal year 1978/79 and, if so, what was the amount of the grant?
2. Does the Government have a representative on the said foundation?
3. Has the foundation conducted any analysis of the potential development of water resources in British Columbia and, if so, has a report thereon been made?
4. What recommendations are made in any such report?

The Hon. D. M. Phillips replied as follows:

"1. In fiscal year 1978/79, the Ministry of Industry and Small Business Development (then Economic Development) provided a grant of $30,000 to the Canada West Foundation.

"2. The Government has two representatives on the Foundation: M. Smith, Deputy Minister, Ministry of Intergovernmental Relations, and D. Emerson, Director, Policy Planning and Evaluation Division, Ministry of Finance.

"3. The Foundation is currently engaged in a study to assess the problems and prospects for developing the water resources of the four western Provinces.

"4. The report is not completed."

34 Mr. Leggatt asked the Hon. the Minister of Industry and Small Business Development the following questions:

With respect to the Federal Government's decision to purchase 137 McDonnell Douglas F-18A fighter planes—

1. What were the promised industrial benefits to British Columbia in the General Dynamics F-16 package?

2. What were the promised industrial benefits to British Columbia in the original McDonnell Douglas F-18A package?

3. What are the promised industrial benefits to British Columbia in the amended McDonnell Douglas F-18A package accepted by the Federal government after major benefits were diverted to Quebec?

4. Are there any net losses to British Columbia resulting from (a) the decision to accept the McDonnell Douglas package rather than the General Dynamics package and (b) the changes to the McDonnell Douglas package after benefits were diverted to Quebec?

The Hon. D. M. Phillips replied as follows:

"1. General Dynamics, with Pratt and Whitney as their major subcontractor, advised the Ministry they had identified the following projects as holding possible potential in British Columbia: CF-16 nozzle fairings, CF-16 external fuel tanks, electronic components, numerical control machining centre, aerospace forging facility, composite structure fabrication centre, copper smelter. It should be noted, however, that General Dynamics also offered these projects to other provinces as well with the exception of the copper smelter. Therefore no specific commitment was given exclusively to British Columbia.

"2. McDonnell Douglas were not specific in identifying projects for placement in British Columbia if the F-18A was chosen. They had indicated that they would place manufacture of the nose section of the F-18A with a local company, they would support a new machining centre and an aerospace forging facility and had carried out through their subcontractor, General Electric, a feasibility study for a new blade and vane facility, with consideration being given to placing it in British Columbia. This facility has now been committed to Quebec.

"3. McDonnell Douglas have not finalized the content of their industrial benefits program with respect to British Columbia. Active negotiations are under way to add to proposals discussed during contract negotiations. My Ministry's Offset Specialist is in constant contact with McDonnell Douglas and all of its subcontractors to press for maximum benefits for British Columbia.

"4. There is no assessable loss to British Columbia in the choice of the F-18A. The benefits offered by General Dynamics were only tentative and, as earlier stated, were offered to other provinces as well as British Columbia. With the exception of the copper smelter, it has come to our attention that all of the items identified by General Dynamics for potential placement in British Columbia had in the last days of negotiations been offered to Quebec. My Ministry is now examining the potential for a copper smelter independent of the aircraft order, and is presently engaged in a feasibility study to determine viability."

36 Mr. Leggatt asked the Hon. the Minister of Industry and Small Business Development the following questions:

1. What steps has the Provincial Government taken to encourage British Columbia companies to apply for industrial benefits under the $3 billion McDonnell Douglas Canadian fighter airplane Industrial Benefits Program?

2. Has the Provincial Government been monitoring the number of applications from British Columbia companies for industrial benefits under this program?

3. How many British Columbia companies have made application for industrial benefits under this program?

The Hon. D. M. Phillips replied as follows:

"1. For some months prior to the order being placed, McDonnell Douglas Canada technical personnel had been working with British Columbia machine shops to ensure that the required quality standards for aerospace work could be met. The Ministry encouraged visits from McDonnell Douglas Canada, McDonnell Douglas St. Louis and all of their subcontractors to meet with British Columbia companies. One hundred and eleven British Columbia companies were invited by the Ministry to a seminar in Vancouver. The Industrial Benefits Program proposals were explained to the companies by McDonnell Douglas, followed by private meetings with all of their subcontractors who were in attendance. Two seminars were held subsequently in Vancouver to explain to British Columbia companies the quality standard requirements of aerospace (total of 61 companies attended). Since the placing of the N.F.A. order, Ministry personnel have been working with McDonnell Douglas in order to maximize British Columbia industry participation in the benefits coming out of the program. Two groups of British Columbia businessmen, representing 13 companies, have visited McDonnell Douglas Canada plant in Malton, Ont., under our trade mission program, to acquaint themselves with work and services that are available.

"2. The Ministry has actively monitored the number of companies applying wherever possible. McDonnell Douglas have run several advertisements in British Columbia press requesting that interested companies apply to them directly in St. Louis. It is not possible for the Ministry at this time to know exactly how many or what the interests are of the companies that have responded. However, McDonnell Douglas have agreed to supply a list of these companies to the Ministry as soon as the advertising program and the replies coming from it have been completed. The Ministry has identified several major projects that would be feasible for the Province and has presented these to McDonnell Douglas and their subcontractors. Negotiations on these projects began prior to the N.F.A. order and are continuing. Implementation may involve joint ventures in existing British Columbia companies.

“3. The Ministry has acted as the liaison between 57 companies and McDonnell Douglas and it is our understanding that negotiations are proceeding on several business projects. As stated previously, we do not know how many companies in total have responded to the McDonnell Douglas advertisements.”

78 Mr. Lea asked the Hon. the Minister of Forests the following question:

Is it the position of the Ministry that the Queen Charlotte Blocks of MacMillan Bloedel's Tree-farm Licence 39 should be managed on a separate "sustained yield" basis or is it the case that the sustained yield requirement is applicable only to the entire TFL?

The Hon. T. M. Waterland replied as follows:

"The cut control provisions in the Tree-farm Licence Agreement are related to the entire licence but through the process for submission and approval of the required management and working plans, it is the intention of the Ministry of Forests to ensure that the Queen Charlotte Block of Tree-farm Licence 39 is managed on a sustainable basis."

80 Mr. Passarell asked the Hon. the Minister of Education the following questions:

With respect to Archie Gaber—

1. Who in the Ministry of Education authorized the implementation of the recommendations made by Stan Evans?

2. Was the Minister consulted prior to the decision being taken to implement the recommendations of the Evans study?

3. Did all persons involved in authorizing the implementation of the Evans recommendations read Mr. Gaber's submission of April 11, 1980, in which it was alleged that there were over 60 errors of fact and contradictions in the Evans study?

4. Has Mr. Gaber been notified by the Minister that a further review is being conducted of his case?

5. With reference to the further review: (a) what are the terms of reference, (b) who is conducting the review, (c) when will it be complete, (d) will Mr. Gaber have an opportunity to make representations and to be represented by counsel, (e) will it be a public hearing, and (f) will it include a review of the actions of the Minister's Executive Assistant, Mr. Tucker, and the conversations with Mr. Gaber's lawyer which culminated in Mr. Gaber's withdrawal from the school board by-election held in Kamloops in May 1980?

The Hon. B. R. D. Smith replied as follows:

"1. The Minister.

"2. Yes.

"3. Officials of the Ministry of Education who considered the Evans recommendations were also aware of Mr. Gaber's allegations of error in the Evans study.

"4. Yes, his lawyers were so notified.

"5. A member of the Attorney General's staff is reviewing the file and considering what further action, if any, should be taken by the Ministry of Education in this matter. This review is not complete and will be considered by the Minister for appropriate action. Mr. Gaber may make any further submissions in writing that he wishes either directly or through a solicitor. There will be no hearing held as the review is not a formal inquiry, but a final review being afforded to Mr. Gaber. There will be no review of the actions of the Minister's Executive Assistant . . . those allegations were answered earlier in the Legislature."

And then the House adjourned at 5.08 p.m.

W. K. DAVIDSON, Deputy Speaker

Wednesday, December 3, 1980

TEN O'CLOCK A.M.

Prayers by Father Bernard P. Hanley.

Mr. Speaker announced that His Honour the Lieutenant Governor was about to enter the Chamber.

His Honour the Lieutenant Governor having entered the House, and being seated in the Chair, was pleased to deliver the following gracious speech:

Mr. Speaker and Members of the Legislative Assembly:

In closing this Second Session of the Thirty-second Parliament, I must commend you for the concern and dedication you have shown in handling all of the matters that came before you.

I was most heartened at the unanimity you reached in the two days of debate devoted to Canadian unity. It is comforting to know that in speaking on behalf of your constituents there is such a strong desire by our people for this great country to remain united.

It was gratifying to note your concern for the burgeoning problem of energy supply through the passage of statutes designed to ease this problem for our people.

Your decision to encourage the use of more fuel-efficient automobiles by offering a tax incentive to purchasers of those vehicles is a very positive step toward energy conservation in our province.

Establishment of the British Columbia Utilities Commission as an overseer of all public utilities in the interests of economy and energy conservation also indicates a very progressive attitude toward instilling concern for energy conservation by our people.

I also noted your decision to approve legislation establishing B.C. Place in the City of Vancouver.

With the full support of the citizens of British Columbia—and the City of Vancouver—my government will undertake the largest downtown redevelopment project in Canada, which will revitalize the industrialized area of False Creek, and provide a mix of public and private development. This area will be the location of a major facility for exhibitions, cultural and sporting events for the enjoyment of all British Columbians.

I am aware also of the wide and continuing research going on with government in the search for alternate energy sources, particularly through the development of our massive provincial coal deposits.

It is also pleasing that you have enhanced our strong economic position through legislation that earmarks some $168.6 million to assist in applied research, low interest loans to small business in British Columbia and to assist our young people through a youth employment and training program.

Your concern for adequate affordable housing for our people has been evidenced in your approval of some $200 million for the creation of more rental as well as owner-occupied accommodation.

You have also recognized the necessity for a Denticare Program for the young, the elderly and the disadvantaged. This program will extend dental insurance to more than 900 thousand of our people.

You have shown commendable concern for the future of our country through the creation of a Ministry of Intergovernmental Relations, carrying the responsibility of helping all of our ten provinces to continue to develop and prosper within a cohesive and cooperative federation, without taking from any one of them their historic autonomy.

This interest is further evidenced with the opening this past summer of a British Columbia office in our nation's capital.

You also created a new Ministry of Tourism designed to nurture this valuable and rapidly growing industry which brings such great economic benefits to our people.

These are but a few of the highlights of your recent and imaginative deliberations to help meet the needs and desires of our people and I am most grateful for them.

Honourable Members, I now relieve you of your legislative duties, and I trust the blessing of Divine Providence will be with you as you shortly resume those duties.

The Hon. E. M. Wolfe (Provincial Secretary) then said:

Mr. Speaker and Members of the Legislative Assembly:

It is His Honour the Lieutenant Governor's will and pleasure that this Legislative Assembly be prorogued until 2 o'clock p.m. tomorrow, and this Provincial Legislative Assembly is hereby prorogued accordingly.
