Resolved, That the House, at its rising, do stand adjourned until 2 o'clock p.m. tomorrow.

Mr. Speaker delivered a reserved opinion as follows:

Honourable Members:

Earlier today the Honourable 2nd Member for Vancouver East asked leave under Standing Order 35 to move a motion for the adjournment of the House to discuss a definite matter of urgent public importance, namely, a proposal of Westcoast Transmission to export additional quantities of natural gas.

On June 22 last I indicated to the House what I perceived to be the duty of the Speaker relating to matters under Standing Order 35 and I do not propose to repeat those comments.

At page 370 of the 16th edition of Sir Erskine May, it is observed that the matter raised must not be one "importing an argument". The Honourable Member transgresses this condition when he alleges that the proposal is "without regard for the needs of the residential and industrial customs in British Columbia" and when he alleges that there is an "absence of an adequate price".

Although the motion would fail on this basis alone, it should be noted that similar motions have been disallowed when the matter (a) involved the exercise of discretion under statutory powers, and (b) when the matter is one for which another authority is immediately responsible (May, 16th edition, pages 372 and 373).

It must follow that the matter is not one to be exempted from the usual notice of motion.

H. W. SCHROEDER, Speaker

The Hon. G. B. Gardom (Attorney-General) tabled the following:

Annual Report of the Corrections Branch for the calendar year ended December 31, 1978.

Order called for "Oral Questions by Members."

Mr. Speaker delivered a reserved opinion as follows:

Honourable Members:

On Friday last the Honourable Member for Alberni sought the floor to raise a matter under Standing Order 35, namely, a decision to allow the use of a pesticide on private land.

The statement of the Member is argumentative and on that ground alone the matter does not qualify for consideration under Standing Order 35.

This matter is similar also to a matter raised by the same Member on April 24, 1978, which was dealt with on page 45 of the Journals of that year. With the exception of the reference to estimates that decision applies in this case.

If the Member wishes to proceed on the matter, it would be necessary to submit the customary notice of motion.
