SPEAKER:DECISIONS:

Disagreement as to facts, there is no evidence that would indicate that the Minister deliberately misled the House, 64, (59, 61).

No relationship between the Premier's comments in 2007 and the process in 2004; information in the public domain for almost 4 years, and therefore matter clearly appears to have failed the "earliest opportunity" requirement, Premier did not mislead the House, 30, (23, 27).

RULINGS:

Bill would create an impost, 78, 91, 105 (2), 131.

Bill would impose obligation on the Crown, 131.

Bill would require expenditure of public funds contrary to Standing Order 67, 113 (2), 114, 128, 131 (2).

Only the Government House Leader can ask leave with respect to government business, 139.

Question be now put, 42, 43.

Standing Order 81 application clearly one of urgency and scope. This case is an example of an appropriate usage of the Standing Order, 156.
