Mr. Rogers presented a Petition from "The Vancouver Gas Company, Limited," opposing Vancouver City Bill.

Ruled out of order, for want of the corporate seal.

Resolved, That the House, at its rising, do stand adjourned until two o'clock to-morrow.

Mr. Speaker Higgins gave the following decision on a point of order reserved:—

With respect to the motion of the Hon. Member for Victoria City (Mr. Helmcken), to amend the Schedule of Bill No. 3, by adding after the sixth line the following: "Counsel or Solicitor, when certified to by the Magistrate, not exceeding $10," I find that substantially the same motion was negatived on the 28th November last, on division (see Votes and Proceedings).

Rule 31 of the Rules and Orders of this House provides as follows:—"A motion being once made and carried in the affirmative or negative, cannot be put again in the same Session, but must stand as a judgment of the House: Provided, always, that a vote in the affirmative may be rescinded, and an Order of the House discharged, on a motion to that effect; but a vote in the negative can only be rescinded by proposing another question similar in its general purport to that which has been rejected, but with sufficient variance to constitute a new question; and the Speaker, subject to an appeal to the House, will determine whether it is substantially the same question or not."

May, tenth edition, page 291, says:—"In passing Bills, a greater freedom is admitted in proposing questions, as the object of different stages is to afford the opportunity of reconsideration. * * * Upon this principle, it is laid down by Hatzell, and is constantly exemplified, 'That in every stage of a Bill every part of the Bill is open to amendment, either for insertion or omission, whether the same amendment has been in a former stage accepted or rejected. The same clauses or amendments may be decided in one manner by the Committee, in a second by the House on report, and, formerly, might have been dealt with again on the third reading.'

May, tenth edition, page 472, says:—"Verbal amendments only can be made to a Bill on the third reading. When material amendments are desirable, the Order for the third reading of the Bill may be discharged, and the Bill recommitted, to introduce the amendments in Committee."

I think that the amendment of the Hon. mover is clearly out of order on report, a similar amendment having been negatived on the 28th ult., but that at the third reading stage the Bill may be re-committed, with instructions to the Committee to consider the amendment of the Hon. Member.

And then the House adjourned at 5:55 o'clock, p. m.
