
PETITION.

To the Honourable the Speaker and Members of the Legislative Assembly of the Province of British Columbia:

GENTLEMEN,—

We, the officers and members of Dominion Lodge No. 4, I. O. G. T., in lodge assembled, and being composed of residents of the City of New Westminster, in the Province of British Columbia, most respectfully represent to your Honourable House the following:—

Your petitioners believe that it would be in the interest of the inhabitants of the Mainland if amendments were made to the “Sunday Observance Act,” chapter 108, Consolidated Acts of 1888, providing for the enforcement of the said Act.

Your petitioners also believe that it is and would be of benefit to the citizens affected by the said “Sunday Observance Act,” if the Imperial Acts referred to in the Schedule of the said Act were printed in full as an appendix to the Statutes.

Wherefore your petitioners humbly pray that your Honourable House may be pleased to cause the foregoing amendments to be made to the said “Sunday Observance Act,” and provide for the printing of the Imperial Acts which form the Schedule of the said Act.

And your petitioners, as in duty bound, will ever pray.

Dominion Lodge No. 4, Independant Order of Good Templars.

W. E. EMERSON,
Chief Templar.
