
PETITION.

To the Honourable the Speaker and Members of the Legislative Assembly of British Columbia, in Parliament assembled :

The humble petition of DAVID OPPENHEIMER, of the City of Vancouver, in the Province of British Columbia, merchant, JAMES COOPER KEITH, of the same place, gentleman, and HENRY JOHN CAMBIE, of the same place, civil engineer, sheweth :—

That your petitioners are desirous of having passed an Act of your Honourable House, providing for the incorporation of a number of persons who have hitherto carried on the educational establishment in the City of Vancouver known as Whetham College, and such other persons as may hereafter become governors of the said establishment, as a body corporate, with power to receive, take, purchase, sell, rent, and lease real and personal property, and to carry on and more effectually establish the said college, or any other college, as to them may seem fit.

Your petitioners therefore humbly pray that your Honourable House will be pleased to enact accordingly.

And your petitioners, as in duty bound, will ever pray, &c., &c.

Dated at Vancouver this 9th day of February, A.D., 1893.

D. OPPENHEIMER,
JAMES COOPER KEITH,
H. J. CAMBIE.
